Beginning Our 50th Year as Hanover's Own Arts Organization Happy Anniversary Hanover Area Arts Guild!

January's Show Marks 50 Years in Hanover

To kick off our anniversary year events, January's front Gallery display will highlight all or part of 50 Years in Hanover. The show will go up following the South Western High School's Drawing and Painting 4 final exam exhibit. Please deliver work on January 5 or 6 during regular Gallery hours. While you're there, be sure to check out the South Western High School exhibit.

Don't have work that fits the theme? Bring it in anyway for display in the middle Gallery.

Demo Day on January 13

All members are invited to stop in the Gallery on January 13, either as an observer or as a demonstrator of whatever art or craft is your specialty. This annual event will offer all comers a taste of homemade soups and breads along with the opportunity to see art being created. Advance sign up for demonstrators is encouraged, but not essential.

February Loves the Art of Passed Members

The month with Valentine's Day will feature the theme "For the Love of Artists," specifically member artists who have passed away, but whose legacy remains in the art they left behind. Gathered from collections around the region, this exhibit will celebrate the art of late members whose talents and works helped the Arts Guild achieve its 50th year.

Guild People

In Memoriam: It is with great sadness that we mark the passing of Dr. Maria Alexandrov, who became a member after retiring from her medical practice. Maria was featured as our Artist of the Month in May.

We're very happy to welcome three new active members, Kathleen Redding, Carol Schroll, and Marvin Schroll. Welcome also new youth members Jason Snyder, Jr., and Maggie Socks.

Artist of the Month

Photographer Carla Long is the Artist of the Month for January. Carla says, "As a documentary photojournalist I specialize in capturing raw, authentic, organic moments." She strives for pictures with personality, pictures that tell a story.

In her own portrait work, Carla spends time with clients to capture the "kitchen table smiles" that emerge with relaxed conversation. In her documentary and event work, she focuses on making observations about relationships and connections. Carla began teaching amateur photographers in 2015 at kitchen tables. She has since become an instructor at the Arts Guild to reach more aspiring photographers and teach them the love of photography.

Gallery Hours: Tues, Wed & Thurs: 10 - 5 ♦ Fri: 10 - 7 ♦ Sat: 10 - 3 ♦ Sun & Mon – Closed

Upcoming Anniversary Events

Details of the January and February exhibits, as well as the demonstration day in January are on the front page. In addition to those events, there will be many others throughout the year. The next one to mark on your calendar is Thursday, April 19. That will be a special evening for members and their guests at Bay City Restaurant. In addition to dinner, a program celebrating the five decades of the Arts Guild in Hanover will spark memories for long-time members, and give a sense of history to those who have more recently become a part of the Arts Guild family. This will be a nice evening of remembrance – not a fund-raiser – and getting to know about members and events that have been part of the past and those that will be the future. Watch for your invitation and information about attending this event.

Notice the anniversary logo? Many thanks to Doug West for his design.

Spring Instructors Needed

It's already time to be thinking spring! Anyone who would be interested in teaching a class or workshop in the March through May timeframe should contact Sarah Treusdell at the Gallery by January 19 with a description of the offering you would like to include in the schedule. Sarah can work with you on scheduling the time, and making sure all needed information is included in the brochure. Nearly any course or workshop will be considered, for whatever age group you would like to reach. Evenings and weekends are certainly options, even when the Gallery isn't open, to accommodate working adults and school kids.

Please Remove Work from Gallery!

Limited storage space at the Arts Guild makes storing work, especially seasonal crafts, difficult. If you have work in the Gallery and are able to remove it before the new year, when the Gallery will have to be emptied for the South Western High School exhibit, it would be much appreciated.

"Art is not what you see, but what you make others see."
-- Edgar Degas

Roof Loan Repaid in Full

At its meeting in December, the board of directors approved the payment of the remaining balance on the loan taken out to replace the roof. Funds for repayment of the loan came partly from donations to the capital campaign, and the remainder from a disbursement the Arts Guild received from an estate bequest.

With the repayment of the roof loan, the Arts Guild is once again debt free.

Out and About

→ Congratulations to Rebecca Yates Shorb, whose work has been juried into two exhibits: the International Show For Pastels Only, held at the Brick Museum in Saco, Maine, and the Degas Pastel Society Members Exhibition held in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

→ The Adams County Arts Council has issued a call for entries for their 14th Annual Juried Art Exhibition. The ACAC is again collaborating with Director Shannon Egan at the Schmucker Art Gallery, Gettysburg College, where this year's exhibition is scheduled May 31 through June 22. The prize offerings are substantial, and a large, varied group of patrons is expected. This year's juror is Richard Rinehart, Director, Samek Art Museum, Bucknell University. The entry form is available at www.adamsarts.org. Please note the entry deadline is March 9.

Plan Ahead for Spring Exhibits

The 3rd Open Exhibit is in April, for both members and non-members. Information and entry forms will be available in the Gallery and online in early January.

A Miniature Show for members is scheduled for May. "Miniature" means image areas for flat work of 4x6 inches or less; 3-D work must be 5 inches or less in any direction. These tiny treasures are harder than it appears to create; get started now to be ready for this show.
